Order, Members. Hon. Osoro and Hon. Raphael, take your seats.

SPEAKERS' GUIDANCE ON WEDNESDAY MORNING SITTING

Hon. Members, welcome to this morning's Sitting. I have just come from assenting to eight Bills passed by this House. Congratulations to all of you who participated.

(Applause)

It is the highest number of Bills ever assented to together, including Private Members' Bills by Hon. Owen Baya, Hon. Ruweida Obo, Hon. Waithaka and others. That is very good.

ADJOURNMENT

Hon. Speaker: I will invoke my authority under Standing Order 1 and direct as follows: That the Sitting of the House this morning is adjourned. We will have a Sitting at 2.30 p.m. this afternoon, where the Speaker will give you some important communication.

Members who have businesses lined up this morning, bear with the Leadership and yours truly. There will be an opportunity to prosecute those businesses later.

Let us be upstanding. For now, the House stands adjourned.

The House rose at 9.59 a.m.
